

THE 94TH ANNUAL LINDSAY ORANGE BLOSSOM FESTIVAL

Celebrating Tradition. Honoring Excellence. Uniting Community.

Mission

The Lindsay OBF Foundation is dedicated to promoting and preserving the Orange Blossom Week and its festivities, as well as recognizing distinguished individuals who represent the pride and values of the Lindsay community.

Orange Blossom Week (April 11-18, 2026)

Orange Blossom Week is Lindsay's longest-standing tradition — a weeklong celebration that brings the community together to honor outstanding residents and celebrate local heritage.

ANNUAL CORONATION & HONOREES

Each year, the Festival hosts a Coronation, nominating a Queen and Royal Court, along with community Honorees. These individuals are long-time Lindsay residents who exemplify:

- Integrity and leadership
- Community service and dedication
- Respectable values
- Commitment to excellence

The Queen, Court, and Honorees serve as ambassadors throughout the week's festivities.

Weeklong Festivities

- Community events and entertainment
- Appearances by the Queen, Court, and Honorees
- Participation from local businesses and organizations
- Opportunities for sponsorship and community involvement

Grand Finale: Parade in the Park (Saturday, April 18, 2026)

The celebration concludes with a full day in the park with 2,500+ in attendance featuring:

- A community parade
- Family-friendly games
- Food and local vendors
- Live entertainment

Community Impact

- Student scholarships & awards
- Preserves a cherished local tradition
- Recognizes exemplary community members
- Promotes civic pride and youth leadership
- Supports local businesses and organizations
- Strengthens community unity
